 - Top: A bird (possibly a stork or ibis) standing on its legs.
 - Second: A triangle.
 - Third: Two parallel diagonal lines.
 - Fourth: A hand holding a staff or scepter.
 - Fifth: A circle with horizontal lines inside.
 - Sixth: A semi-circle.
 - Seventh: A hand holding a staff or scepter.
- Column 2 (Middle):
 - Top: An oval.
 - Second: A triangle with a wavy line below it.
 - Third: A hand holding a staff or scepter.
 - Fourth: A triangle.
 - Fifth: A zigzag line.
 - Sixth: A rectangle.
 - Seventh: A bird (possibly a duck or goose) swimming.
 - Eighth: A cat sitting on a rectangular base.
- Column 3 (Right):
 - Top: A hand holding a staff or scepter.
 - Bottom: A triangle.

Intuition Notes

1) What are your personal objectives in taking this course?

2) What does intuition mean to you? What thoughts and feelings come up?

3) Think about the times that trusting your intuition served you, and when you didn't follow your gut feelings.

Notes

Mantra

“It’s time to practice trusting myself.
I’m ready to embrace trust. To trust myself, and all that comes from the love for myself and my child.”

Intuition Defined

The ability to acquire knowledge without conscious reasoning or needing an explanation

Intuition is the inner knowing and feeling (and other sensations) coming from your heart center

Intuition is the non-physical, energetic part of us

Note: The mind can't understand or access your intuition. We can't evaluate intuitive insights with the analytical mind.
